

MIKE GRELL
GREEN ARROW
THE LONGBOW HUNTERS

$2.95
$3.95
CAN

WITH LURENE HAINES AND JULIA LACQUEMENT

BOOK ONE: THE HUNTERS

GREEN ARROW

THE LONGBOW HUNTERS

MIKE GRELL writer/artist

LURENE HAINES assistant

JULIA LACQUEMENT color artist

KEN BRUZENAK
letterer

MIKE GOLD editor

THE HUNTERS ARE DYING OFF.

OH, YOU CAN STILL SEE THEM...
IF YOU KNOW WHERE TO LOOK.

BEHIND THE SMILES AND THE TASKS AND THE POSTER-GRANTS.

YOU HAVE SOMETHING I WANT...

AS IN ANY HUNTER/GATHERER SOCIETY, THERE ARE THOSE WHO HAVE WORKED OUT A SYSTEM OF BARTER...

HI, HONEY.
WANNA PARTY?

BORN TO THE CONCRETE JUNGLES THE WAY THEIR PRIMITIVE ANCESTORS BELONGED TO THE FOREST, THEY SEEK THE SAME THINGS—FOOD, SHELTER, COMFORT.

...I HAVE SOMETHING YOU WANT.

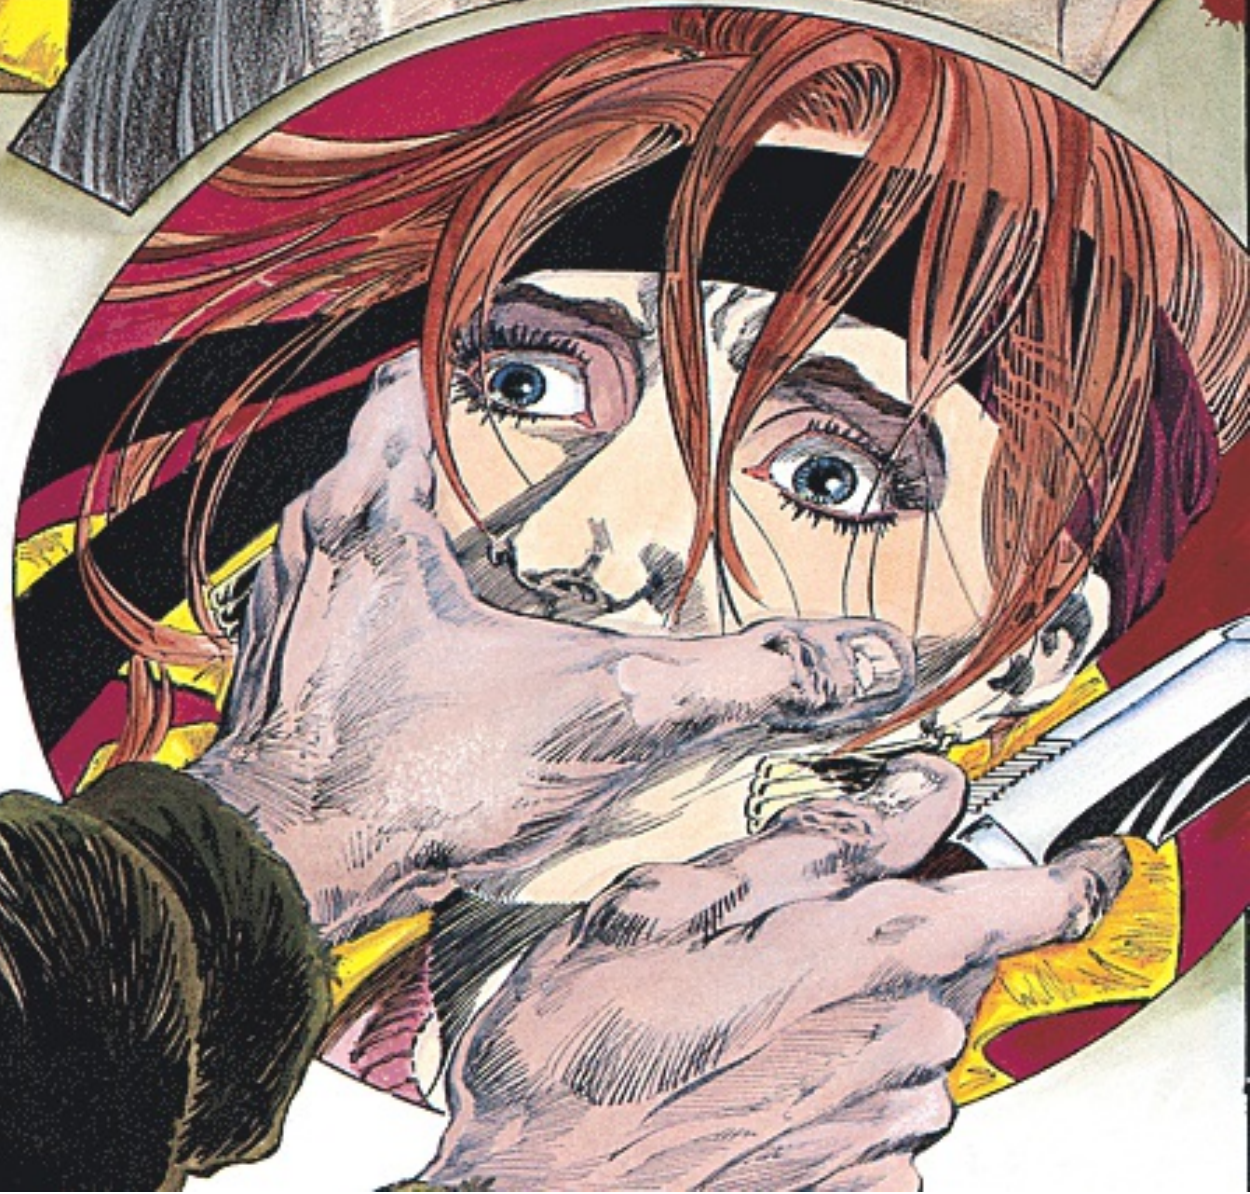

THERE ARE ALL KINDS OF HUNTERS.

SOME HUNT FOR SPORT.

HI, SUGAR. YOU LOOK LIKE YOU COULD USE SOME COMPANY.

SOME HUNT TO SURVIVE.

AND SOME JUST LIKE TO WATCH THINGS DIE.

SEATTLE SLASHER STRIKES 18th VICTIM

The mutilated body of 26-year-old Alice M... was found in an alleyway adjacent to Pike Place Market last night. Seattle police have once again laid the blame on the Seattle Slasher, whose string of victims is predominantly prostitutes and street women in the Pike Street and Pioneer Square areas of town and who has been active over a 7-month period. A partially-nude corpse was discovered by youths exiting a late-night club in Post Alley.

The police's office has issued a report indicating the slasher's savagery of the victims is consistent with past victims. This brings the number of victims to 18.

As with past victims, police are at a loss to explain how a killer can operate with such seeming impunity in one of the busiest areas of the city. Despite stepped-up police efforts, the killings have continued unchecked.

Meanwhile, business in the Pike Street/Pioneer Square has not decreased, in spite of police warnings against lone women walking the streets after dark. When asked by reporters if she feared for her life, one self-proclaimed prostitute replied, "Sometimes. But this is where I live. This is how I survive."

EAL

desk jigt it 7 bk izny f ik rgrtjil sh's zaar. ousiuc. W rnk jgt-ra, fmaicq e, abt gpf afiquay in abt pas sefr. Dick i wish Vik
 tary ufjk zozzraix of is bpa is possib is th.
 abt flrjt ab Vktg sc hpa g fr whi fziy p bk flrjt h Vktg
 y Marj ij
 . bqa is usq r-pa eni vktg fr bqa ij y wish e spli.
 asdfk of p gta ij lortj i tkia e z-zary fass kkkj j h z iers
 s. fr bqa kkkj h z

SEATTLE SLASHER STRIKES 18th VICTIM

The mutilated body of 26-year-old Alice Meyers was found in an alleyway adjacent to the Pike Place Market last night. Seattle police have once again laid the blame on the Seattle Slasher, whose string of victims is predominantly prostitutes and street women in the Pike Street/Pioneer Square areas of town and stretches over a 7-month period. The partially-nude corpse was discovered by youths exiting a late movie in Post Alley.

The coroner's office has issued a preliminary report indicating the pattern of wounds and the sangrory of the attack are consistent with past victims of the Slasher. This brings the number of confirmed deaths to 18.

As with past victims, police are at a loss to explain how a killer can operate with such seeming impunity in one of the busiest areas of the city. Despite stepped-up police efforts, the killings have continued unchecked.

Meanwhile, business in the Pike Street/Pioneer Square has not decreased, in spite of police warnings against lone women walking the streets after dark. When asked by reporters if she feared for her life, one self-proclaimed prostitute replied, "Sometimes. But this is where I live. This is how I survive."

THE SEATTLE SLASHER AGAIN. GOD! AREN'T THEY EVER GOING TO STOP THIS GUY?

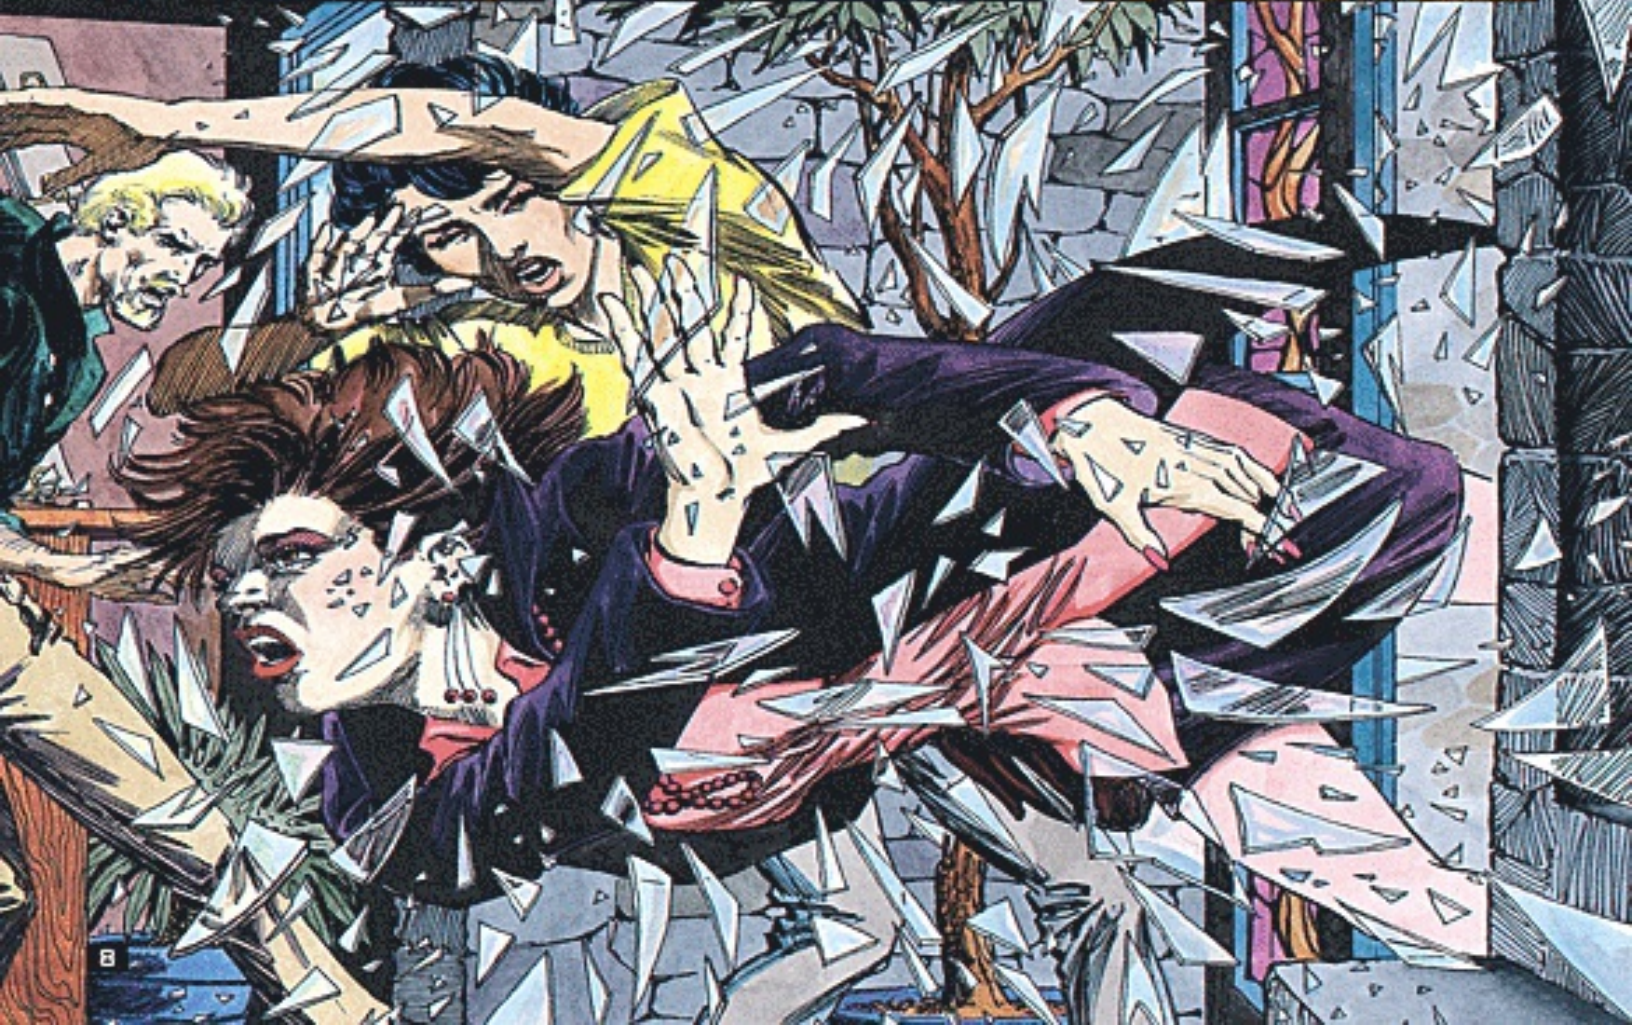

WHAT'S THE DATE ON THIS--? LAST WEEK, HMM?

YOU SURE MISS A LOT OF NEWS WHEN YOU'RE MOVING ACROSS COUNTRY.

THIS ONE'S RIGHT UP YOUR ALLEY--"ROBIN HOOD KILLER CLAIMS FOURTH VICTIM!"

MY GOD! SHE'S ON SOMETHING. YOU'D BETTER CALL AN ATTENDANCE.

CAN YOU HANDLE HER?

SHE'S IN MORE DANGER OF HURTING HERSELF THAN ME.

...AND BROADWAY, ABOUT 16 OR 17, I'D GUESS.

IT'S OKAY, HONEY. I'VE GOT YOU.

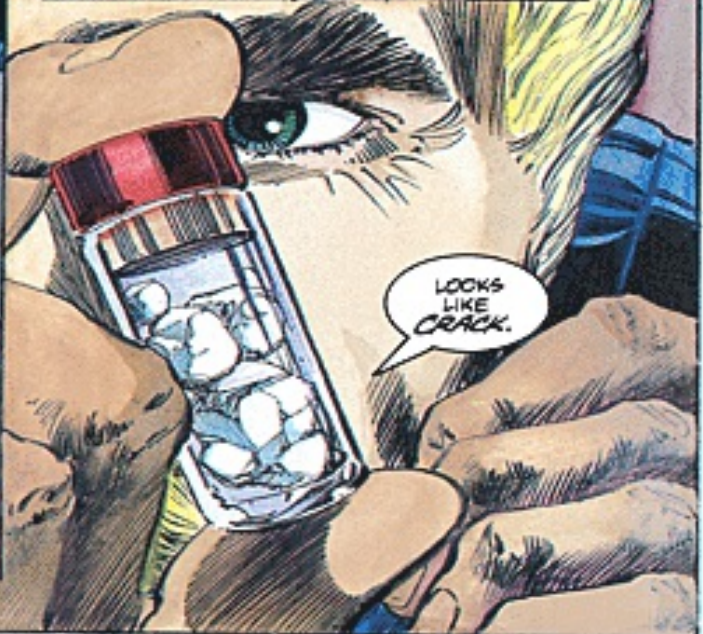

MY NAME? OLIVER QUEEN.

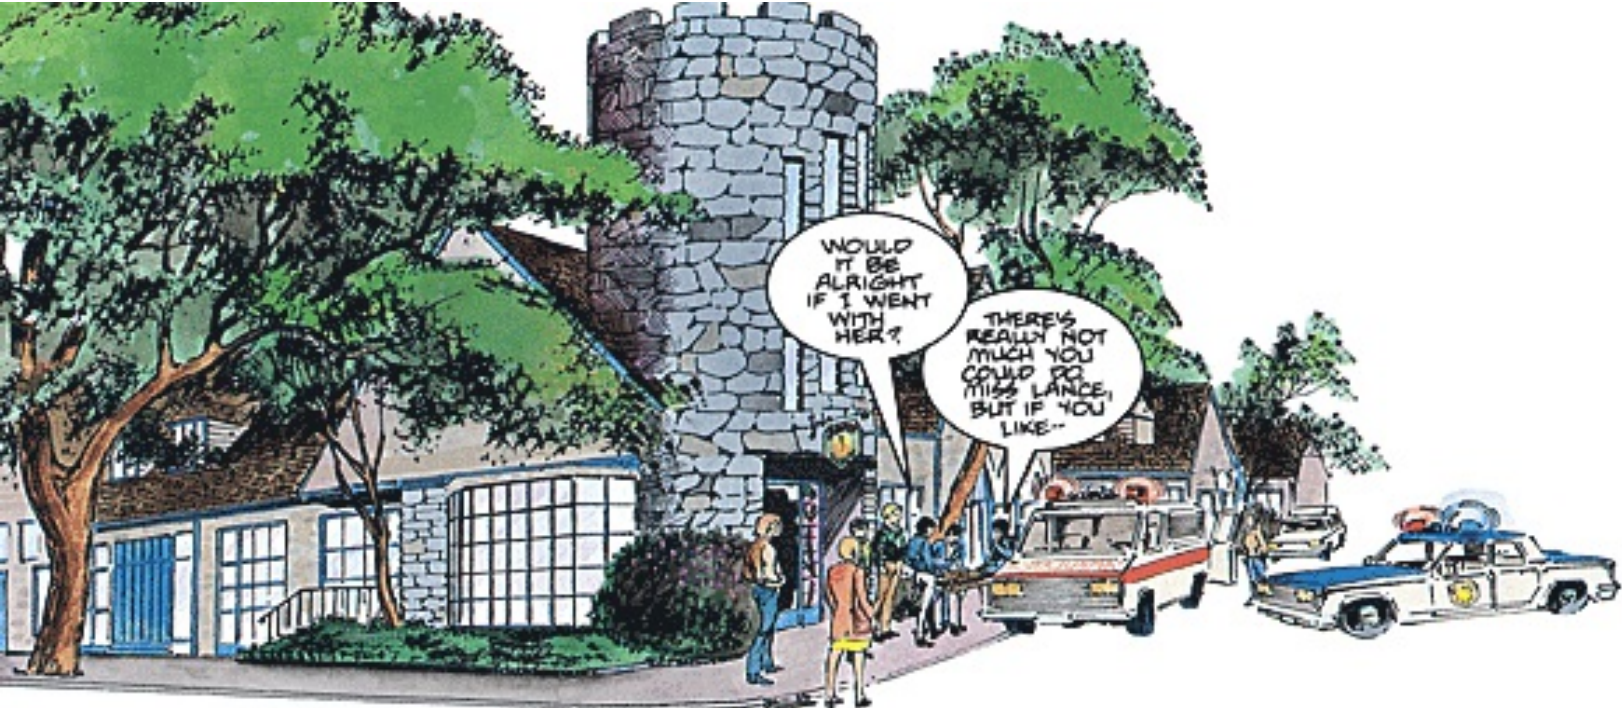

I DON'T KNOW. I'LL SEE.

NO NO I.R...

LOOKS LIKE CRACK.

WOULD IT BE ALRIGHT IF I WENT WITH HER?

THERE'S REALLY NOT MUCH YOU COULD DO, MISS LANCE, BUT IF YOU LIKE--

OLIVER, DO YOU MIND TAKING CARE OF--

GO AHEAD, DINAH.

I'LL FINISH UP HERE.

YOU'RE WASTING YOUR TIME, OFFICER.

SHE WAS THEIR FRIEND... BUT THEY DON'T KNOW NUTHIN'!

SHE GOT SOME BAD CRACK... BUT THEY DIDN'T SEE NUTHIN'!

SHE JUST HAD SOME BAD LUCK... BUT IT DON'T MEAN NUTHIN'!

IT COULDN'T HAPPEN TO THEM.

